

Excited by Grace

Matthew 20:1-16

I. The context of the parable

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The generosity of the Master

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The amazing generosity of the Master

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The amazing generosity of the Master

1. He seeks out the needy

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The amazing generosity of the Master

1. He seeks out the needy

2. He wanted the people no one else did

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The offensive generosity of the Master

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The offensive generosity of the Master

1. God's grace is shocking

II. The Parable of the Laborers in the Vineyard

- The offensive generosity of the Master

1. God's grace is shocking

2. God's grace is offensive

III. The application of the parable

III. The application of the parable

- We are one-hour workers not all-day laborers

III. The application of the parable

- We are one-hour workers not all-day laborers
- What keeps us thankful is the fact that we were the ones on the receiving end of such extravagant grace

Excited by Grace

Matthew 20:1-16