Phil 2:9-11 Therefore God has highly exalted him & bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven & on earth & under the earth & every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Helen Roseveare I didn't see a vision, I didn't hear a voice, I just knew with every ounce of my being that God was actually, vitally there. God in all his majesty and power. He stretched out his arms to me. He surrounded me with His love and He seemed to whisper to me, "20 years ago, you asked me for the privilege of being a missionary. This is it. Don't you want it?" "These are not your sufferings. They're not beating you. These are my sufferings. All I ask of is the loan of your body." And an enormous relief swept through me. One word became unbelievably clear, and that word was privilege. privilege. He didn't take away the pain or cruelty or humiliation. No! It was all there, but now it was altogether different. It was with him, for him, in him. He was actually offering me the inestimable privileged of sharing in some little way the edge of the fellowship of his suffering.

Have we experienced the protection of Jesus?

Romans 5:12, 15-19 Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned... But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. And the free gift is not like the result of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. For if, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ. Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous

Has Jesus drank the Father's cup of wrath for you?
