GRACE

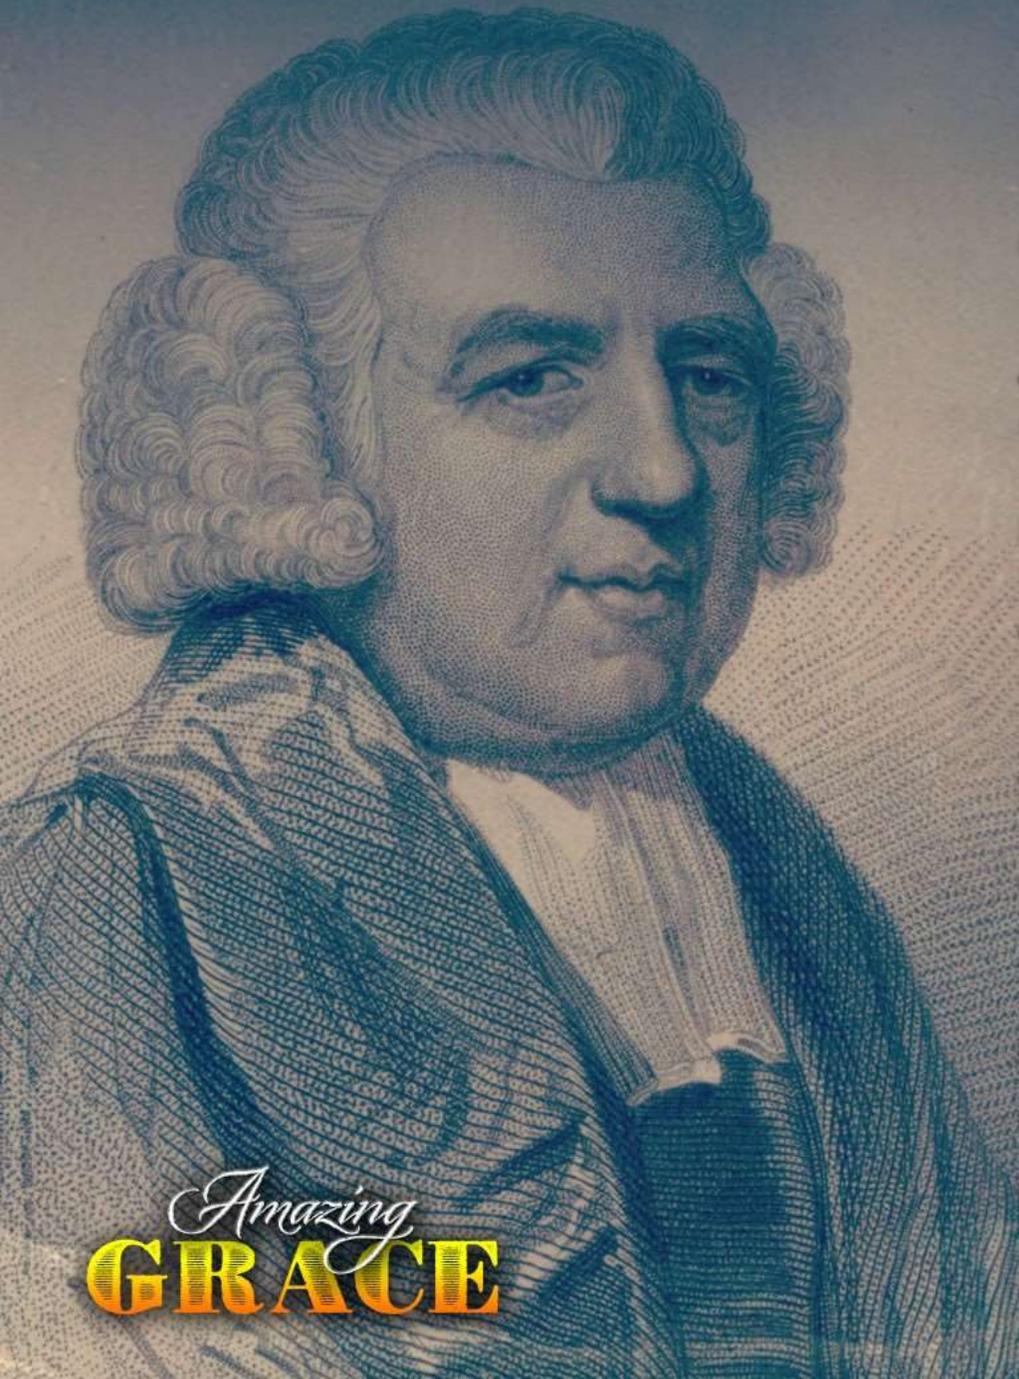

Ephesians 2:8-9

“For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, not a result of works, so that no one may boast.”

“John Newton, Clerk, once an infidel and libertine, a servant of slaves in Africa, was, by the rich mercy of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, preserved, restored, pardoned, and appointed to preach the faith he had long labored to destroy!”

GRACE

“I am not what I Ought to be. Ah! How imperfect and deficient. Not what I Might be, considering my privileges and opportunities. Not what I Wish to be. God, who knows my heart, knows I wish to be like Him. I am not what I Hope to be, ere long to drop this clay tabernacle, to be like him and see Him as He is. Not what I Once Was, a child of sin, and a slave of the devil. Though not all these, not what I ought to be, not what I might be, not what I wish or hope to be, and not what I once was, I think I can truly say with the Apostle, “By the Grace of God I am what I am”

Amazing Grace

...lost, but now I see.
...ious did, but now I be-lieved!
grace hath brought me safe ap-pear The hour I now I see.
less days to God's praise Than when we first I be-lieved!
And grace will lead me home.
first be-gun.

GRACE

“Grace is more than just leniency and unconditional acceptance, Divine grace is God’s relentless and loving pursuit of His enemies, who are unthankful, unworthy, and unlovable! Grace is not just God’s ability to save sinners but God’s stubborn delight in His enemies.... Grace means that despite our filth, despite the sewage running through our veins, despite our odd addiction to food, drink, sex, porn, pride, self, money, comfort and success God desires to transform us into real ingredients of divine happiness, God’s grace is His aggressive pursuit of and stubborn delight in freakishly foul people”
