The Return from Egypt
19 When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking your life are dead." Then Joseph got up, took the child and his mother, and returned to Israel.

The Return from Egypt

19 When Herod died, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt and said, 'Get up, take the child and his mother, and go to the land of Israel, for those who were seeking your life are dead.'

20 Then Joseph and the child Jesus went to the land of Israel, but when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Instead, he went to the town of Nazareth.

21 And Jesus grew up, and he was obedient to his parents. He was about thirty years old when he began his ministry. He was full of wisdom and power, and his fame spread throughout the whole country of Israel.

22 Now when Jesus began his ministry, he said, 'I have been anointed by the Spirit of God, and I have been sent to preach the good news to the poor. I have been sent to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is near. I have been sent to heal the sick, to cast out demons, to preach the good news to the poor, and to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is near. I have been sent to heal the sick, to cast out demons, to preach the good news to the poor, and to proclaim that the Kingdom of God is near.'

13 Then Jesus answered him, 'It is written: Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

14 Then the devil left him, and the angels came and ministered to him.
